$7,800!

The 6th of February arrived and the wallets opened up in support of Hospice. After the bowls, raffles, auctions and various donations the total for the day was $7,800, a fantastic effort for just one green. Big thanks to all that made the day come together, especially Louise Fox a.k.a. "Ms Marmalade" for organising and running all the raffles.

Waitangi Charity Tournament

By Fay Kingham – Postie on the loose
 What a year it was. COVID 19 – two Auckland lock downs.

Today 6th February – Waitangi Day is in the calendar for our Charity Day fundraiser at the Birkenhead Bowling Club. The Charity we support is North Shore Hospice a very worthy cause.

Preparation began a few weeks ago as Debbie, Jan, Stacey and myself (Fay) like to dress up for the occasion. This year it is the STINGERS.

7am meet and prepare. First a Bloody Mary or two, dress up and head out to the Club. Bar is open from 8am and nice cold Speights clears the head.

First team up and looking very formidable, the boys from Pakuranga. What a great group. I stopped looking at the score when it was 22 – 1 (us having the 1 of course). Pakuranga set the day with great help, guidance and

The Stingers and the Pakuranga lads enjoying the day friendship.

The day consisted of four games of 1 hour 15 minutes and fatigue was starting to take its toll. 2 games were played in the morning and then a break for lunch. Once again Bernie and Stu provided an outstanding lunch of ham, potato and salads.

Feeling recharged and ready for the final 2 games the beers were changed to afternoon gins. Unfortunately, our games did not improve a great deal suffering 4 loses but our scores did increase to 17-4 in the last game (us having the 4 of course).

Back in the club rooms it was time for raffle draw and auction. A lot of thrust and counter thrust as bidders were raising the stakes on each item. The boys from Pakuranga came away with a few raffles and very kindly donated one of their prizes to Stacey who having never played before acquitted herself very well. Jan's winning bid secured the beautiful Kia Sorento for a weekend. Whoop whoop girls trip – but that is another story.

Over $7,000 was raised for Hospice which was a great effort considering we were well down on teams compared to previous years. It just goes to show that when wonderful people come together friendships are made and the spirit of fun and bowls is the winner on the day regardless of what is on the scoreboard.

We will be back next year for sure and I believe the Pakuranga boys are keen as well. Trouble is what are we going to dress up as? WATCH THIS SPACE.

Editor: Without teams like the "stingers" the tournament would in deed be a very boring one. Thank you ladies.

White, Lynch, Melrose, Pulson but No Nickys

With the first of our two Summer of Bowls tournaments behind us, this coming weekend The Good Home Birkenhead $6,500 Women's Pairs gets underway Saturday morning. Suffering the effects of Covid and club clashes some what reduced field will assemble from that of previous years. The Nickys have been forced to withdraw, but that doesn't mean the party is over, just a bit quieter and we hope to see them back in 2022. The last time the field stood at twenty-six was back in 2018. A reduced field size does not equate to a weaker field, looking through the draw it is possibly stronger if anything. Four wins on the Saturday won't be easy as the top teams hit each other chasing a spot in the top sixteen.

Round one 8.30am Saturday Kensington's Anne Muir gets her defence of last year's title underway accompanied by St Helier's Catherine Bein against the Takapuna/Birkenhead pair of Adele Ineson and Mavis Smith. Birkenhead's star 1-5 year Millie Nathan has her own Birkenhead team in this year, skipping Loz Croot and they are straight into the action against Tauranga's Mary Campbell and Gayle Melrose. Papakura's Leeane Poulson teams up with North East Valley's Bronwyn Stevens, an untried team on the Birkenhead greens and a team to watch, start their campaign off against Te Atau's Marion Hakaraia and Robyn Reihana. New comers Alexandra's Linley O'Callaghan and Waikivi's Lynda Milne strike local Mairangi Bay pair Theresa Rogers and Sheryl Wellington Round two and Takapuna's Connie Mathieson and Jacqui Belcher will have their work cut out up against Under 25 World Singles Champion Paris Baker, skipped by Oliva Bloomfield, both out of New Lynn. The ever steady Queenstown's Christine Buchanan and Margaret O'Connor should be too strong for the Milford/Takapuna pairing of Lyn Calver and Trish Hardie. The all Takapuna team of Jamie Chen and Wendy Jensen will be in for a good tussle with Pt Chev's Jenny Stockford and Angela Temple.

Round three, Tauranga's Carolyn Tasker has 2019 National Singles Champion Hinuera's Debbie White to skip her as they take on Papakura's Cheryl Hunia and Claire Tawharu. 2014 winners Browns Bay's Kerrin Roberts and Orewa's Elaine McClintock take on the Tauranga team of Mina Paul and regular to Birkenhead Marilyn Constantine. Challenge of the Westies sees Helensville's Kelly Clark and Deb Presland against Hakaraia and Reihana, Mercury Bay's Colleen Sexton and Mairangi Bay's Jan Gledhill will be hoping they're chasing win number there as the come up against Campbell and Melrose. Kensington's Maree Attwood and Hikurangi's Leanne Stewart will be hoping to start the afternoon off with a win against Mahurangi East's Penny Wakelin and Hunua'a Pauline Hayward.

Round four and the last chance to secure that spot in the top sixteen. 2015 winners Anne Dorreen and Lisa Parlane could have played this round back on their club green as they take on clubmates Mathieson and Belcher. Possibly the game of the round both Birkenhead's Trish Croot and Ruth Lynch, and St Helier's Paula Kamphorne and Sue Curren will be hoping to be sitting on three wins as they clash in the last round of the day. Pt Chev's Jenny Te Nana's tournament attendance record is impressive and she will be hoping to turn her playing record around in the same direction as Epsom's Rosary Sellick takes charge this time round. At the conclusion of play Saturday the field will be seeded and split with the top sixteen chasing the Cup Championship while the remaining ten will fight it out for the Consolation on Sunday. All culminating in four finals played on the top green starting at 3.15pm, followed by the prize-giving at 5.30pm.

If you can assist contact Doug Campbell (ph: 022 3580878), your assistance will be appreciated.

New Comers Take it Out Again

With possibly the strongest field assemble, the Carpet Mill $5,500 Birkenhead Men's Pairs got under way 8.5am last Sunday to glorious sunshine and just a breath of wind to make the temperature comfortable. Four games complete as the clock stuck five o'clock. The troops gathered in the club for Stueie's sausage sizzle, the 50 draw Monster meat raffle and the seedings and subsequent draw for Monday's play. Zak Abro and Mike Bradshaw took out the number one seeding with four wins, +38 diff. Alex Reed and Aiden Takarua came in second with four wins, +28 diff, and rounding out the four winners was Birkenhead's Gary Stevens and Tony Grantham. Last year's Champions Roger Andrew and David Clark enjoyed three wins to qualify fifth. Birkenhead's Mike Haggart and John Hindmarch seeded sixth with three wins, Tauranga's John O'Shea paired up with Birkenhead President Randall Watkins, three wins and seeded tenth. While just behind them with three wins was Jimmy Heath and Daymon Pierson in eleventh.

Last year's runner-up Sean Hird with new comer Adam Wisnoski finished day one in eighth seed, Runner-up two years back Martin Dixon and Mike Galloway were helped in to thirteenth seed with a bye to go with their two wins. Clayton Hockley and Taylor Horn scrapped into the top sixteen with two wins and a +4 diff, edging out James Gavin and Bryce Mackie also on two wins but -1 diff.

The remainder of the Birkenhead teams, Mike Turner and Tommy Campbell, Evan Thomas and Lionel Drew, Bruce Baker and Doug Campbell all qualified for the Consolation. Along with some surprises, Mark Burgess and Jamie Hill one win, Neville Hill and Brendon Kelly one win, Greg Taylor and Brent Malcolm one win, Ray Skoglund and Brett O'Riley had a horror day going down every game.

Monday and the cloud burnt off quickly to hot conditions across the two full greens. The Champions Cup and $1,500 cash at the end but that was four wins away and four tough games. Lose and you're in to the flights or the "Last Chance Challenge" Dixon/Galloway made easy work of Daniel and David Hood (14-6), Andrew/Clark went down to Wally Mar-sic and Gary Cotter (12-14), Top seed Abro/Bradshaw got past Hockley/Horn (16-11). Hird/Wishnoski progressed to the quarters with a win over Bart Robertson and David Eades (14-8). Reed/Takarua undefeated almost received their first lose narrowly getting past Neil Fisher and Bryan Chapman (14-12). O'Shea/Watkins had given it a nudge the night before, but not Japanese sake, were nudged out of the Champions Cup going down one shot to Brian Wilson and Colin Rogan (11-12). The Stevens/Grantham versus Steve Sabine and Graham Reive was down to one shot with Stevens/Grantham the victor (10-9). Rounding out the Champions Cup clashes was the all Birkenhead game of Haggart/Hindmarch against Heath/Pierson with Hindmarch claiming bragging rights with a five shot victory (19-14) and setting up another all Birkenhead clash in the quarters.

Handicap Singles & Pairs Semi Finals

Games to be completed/resulted by Friday 19 February

Into the quarters and one step closer to the $1,500 cash. Dixon/Galloway made light work of Marsic/Cotter (15-9), while Arbo/Bradshaw stumbled and went down to Hird/Wishnoski (10-12). Reed/Takarua got their way against O'Shea/Watkins (13-10). The fourth game was an all Birkenhead clash with Stevens/Grantham against Haggart/Hindmarch and as with the previous all Birkenhead clash it was Haggart/Hindmarch progressing in to the semis of the main event (12-14).

Both semis proved to be one sided with Dixon/Galloway giving Hird/Wishnoski their marching orders (18-6). While Reed/Takaura crushed Birkenhead's hopes of a home team in the final sending Haggart/Hindmarch to the bar early (11-4).

The final and it was Dixon/Galloway first on the board but Reed/Takaura joined them the next end. After four ends Dixon/Galloway held the lead (5-2). A two and one to Reed/Takaura on the following ends and the score was level after six ends (5-5). Dixon/Galloway picked up a single shot on end six, But the four to Reed/Takaura on the eighth end (6-9) and Reed/Takaura were off. Dixon/Galloway never scored again and shock hands after thirteen of the fourteen ends with victory to Reed/Takaura (15-6) with the pair having not dropped a game all tournament.

The result is the third year in a row that a new comer's team has taken out top spot in the tournament along with $1,500 cash and the "Champions Cup".

Our Tournament Partner Craig Burgess of Carpet Mill Archers Road spoke at the prize-giving and has confirmed his support for 2022.

Next year's Carpet Mill $6,000 Birkenhead Men's Pairs will commence on Waitangi Day Sunday 6 and conclude Monday 7 February 2022. In line with rising costs associated with the tournament the entry fee will increase next year by $20 to $180 per team. With the increase also comes an increase in prizemoney to $6,000!!

Inquiries have been received from club's as to the number of teams a club may enter in the National sevens interclub competition. The Board have considered this question and has decided that clubs may enter a maximum of two (2) teams per club in both men and women. This decision was a compromise between those club's having a high membership total and the competition being handled in a timely manner and respect for all clubs in the Centre.
