Trophy of Friendship

First played 17/12/1966
Published in "Times" 12/01/1967
The first annual competition for a trophy known as the Christmas Shield, was played for between teams representing the Northcote and Birkenhead bowling clubs. Both clubs had two wins but Northcote took the Shield by 104 points to 74. Donor of the shield, Mr Denis Hudson of Northcote, said he had donated the shield in recognition of the goodwill which existed between the two clubs. Mr Fred Claxton (Birkenhead) and Mr Don Lawson (Northcote) spoke in similar fashion.
Results (Northcote names first):
Parker, Setters, Brown, Lawson 33; Kirkby, Swinton, Greenwood, Utting 14.
White, Hudson, W.Thomas, G.Thomas 34; Bostock, Murray, Southgate, D.Norton 14.
Clayton, Mitchell, McCormack, Hansen 17; Green, Bolt, Howe, Kindley 22.
Dick, Martin, Sinclair, Gibson 20; Grice, Ryan, Claxton, Darrington 24.

Better Late than Never

Following on in the tradition that the Christmas Shield is, Tuesday 15 March four men's, two women's and one 1-5 year teams journeyed down the hill to Northcote seeking revenge for losing the Shield back in 2020. Original carded to have been played back in December 2021, but Covid kept getting in the way until it was finally played last week. Northcote coming away with 2 wins and a draw, but Birkenhead's 4 wins and a draw saw the Christmas Shield travel up the hill to Birkenhead until it goes up for grabs again in December 2022 on the greens of Birkenhead.

Five to Finish

Only one round remained in the Men's Championship Fours and that was the final and a battle of the remaining one lifers Nigel Drew's four (Mark Rumble, Martin Short, Lionel Drew, Nigel Drew (s)) took on Steve Yates's four (Jimmy Heath, Adam Richardson, Jack Huriwai, Steve Yates (s)). Drew picked up a three on the first of fifteen ends and after eleven ends had the Championship in the bag (5-12). Well so you'd think, but with four ends to pick up seven shots to force an extra end or eight for the championship. Wonders do happen in bowls and over the next three ends Yates and co picked up a one, three and a two to trail by one (11-12) with one end to play. That final end Yates came away with a five to pull off the win (16-12) and the Men's Championship Fours title for the season. The other Championship played over the weekend was the 1-5 Year Championship AC Pairs. This was left with a potential final between two lifer Warren Lush and Milika Nathan (s) and a one lifer Bev Rolfe and Chad Nathan (s) played last night. Well, partly played last night as Auckland skirted all-day with the treat of rain and thunderstorms the heavens finally open after seven ends of the fourteen ends and play was stopped for the day with Rolfe/C.Nathan one shot ahead (7-8). Play will resume 5pm Monday 28 March.
