World Bowls to Move Down Under
Reproduced from Bowls Australia website. By Aidan Davis
World Bowls will move its headquarters Down Under, with the sport's global governing body signalling the arrival of a new era, as it commences its search for a new Chief Executive Officer.
World Bowls President Darryl Clout, a member of NSW's Marks Point Bowling Club, announced the organisation's new direction in an advisory to all Member Nations, following a comprehensive strategic review. The review identified the need to expand the skillset of the organisation's staffing structure, with greater focus on commercial and business development functions. As a result of the recommendations, current CEO Gary Smith, who has held the role for over 20 years, will transition to the newly-created role of Chief Operations Officer in order to facilitate the recruitment of a new CEO to steer the sport. The new CEO will be more experienced and bring greater emphasis to key areas relating to information technology, communications and marketing, revenue raising, broadcast opportunities and strategic planning, Clout advised. While announcing the global search for the next person to take the reins of the international body, a process which will be managed by experienced Australian-based Executive Search Consultant Michael Catlow, Clout also advised the outcome of two recent Expressions of Interests which will help shape the future of the sport.

The World Bowls Board agreed in principle to relocate the World Bowls headquarters to Australia, to be located in the same premises as Bowls Australia, and additionally, for Bowls Australia to handle all ongoing Marketing and Communications operations on behalf of World Bowls.
Bowls Australia welcome the outcome of the expressions of interests and look forward to working closely with World Bowls' Board and staff to enhance the marketing and communications functions of the sport globally.

Spotlight on Club Partners

This week we put the spotlight on long time Club Partner Dil's Funeral Services.

By Stephen Dil

Since 1960 Dil's Funeral Services has been meeting the needs of families as they cope with loss and sadness after a death. We provide funeral services based on the wishes of the families we serve. They are personalised, meaningful and memorable.

From the very beginning, we have run our company on a set of traditional family values that ensures you are met with sensitivity, empathy and warm professionalism as you begin plans to farewell your loved one.

From your first contact with us, our carefully selected and experienced staff will take the worry out of getting it right. We work sensitively to help you create a funeral service that will truly reflect their life, and the feelings of your family and friends.

This deeply personal approach formed the unique heart of our service when it was originally founded by Wilfred T Dil - and it remains in place today as our business continues into the third generation of family ownership. Today the company is owned by Wilf's grandson Stephen Dil.

Equally important to remaining true to these original values has been our ability to evolve along with the times, to innovate and embrace new ideas and continue to meet the needs of changing generations.

We carry out our work as a 'family', with integrity, honesty and with the highest respect for you and your family. In line with the very best philosophy based on familial care and empathy - 'nothing is too much trouble'.

Our company stands apart as a funeral service provider and, at this difficult time, we can assure you that:

- We will listen to your needs and find out exactly what you want
- The funeral service we create together will be personal, individual and tailored exactly to your requirements
- Traditions and special requirements important to your family will be followed
- Help and guidance will always be available and you will have access to knowledgeable, experienced and sensitive staff
- You will have access to world class facilities including our award winning North Harbour Chapel.
