House Trained & In Need of Accommodation

Steve Smith and Dusty Reader, disputably two of Northland's finest bowlers, have had their accommodation for during the Nationals pulled from under them. At this late stage the remaining accommodation in harbour is expensive, $2,000 for seven nights.

Both are house trained, have clean habits, are good with other pets and children, come with impeccable references and would like to stay together (not in the same bed).

If you are in a position to help out, know of somewhere or someone that can, please contact Steve email: stevebowlersmith@gmail.com or phone: 021 2377374.

Continuous Raffle Winners

Rumble, Drew, Eades

Last weekend was to have seen both the Women's and Men's Championship Triples played out on the greens at Birkenhead. But for one reason or the other the women's championship did not eventuate and will now be played at a date convenient for all entrants. The Men's Championship was vastly different at thirty men, ten teams of triples stepped out Saturday morning all out to chase the title, a realistic expectation for some and a distant dream for others, but at least they were out there competing. Saturday's play of four rounds was to find the top four to progress through to the knockout stage on Sunday. At the conclusion of play Saturday two four winners, one three winner and one two winner made up the draw for Sunday. Peter Nathan with Evan Thomas and Chad Nathan off the front progressed through to final with comfortable win (25-14) over Keith Burgess, Doug Campbell and Perry Meinung (s). While on the other side of the draw John Janssen, Robbie Henson, Gary Wallace (s) bowed out early against the experienced trio of Mark Rumble, Nigel Drew playing two and David Eades (s), with Eades and co moving forward with the win (19-12). The weather deteriorating but not enough to flood the green, so the final got underway and what a worthy final it promised to be, Nathan against Eades, a good tussle and with a high calibre of bowls played by all and down to the wire. Couldn't have been further from reality. In Thomas's own words "we played awful" and that was reflected in the score with Eades, Drew and Rumble easily claiming the title (19-12) after seventeen of the regulation eighteen ends. Nathans trio picked up seven of their points in the final two ends after being well down (19-5) after fifteen ends to give some respectability to the final score line.

BPL17 Teams Announced

by Val Febbo on December 9, 2022

Following the recent conclusion to the 16th edition of the Bowls Premier League (BPL), the teams for BPL17 in Moama have been submitted with two playing and coaching changes respectively.

On the green, three-time champion and Right at Home Australian Jackaroo Chloe Stewart returns for the Tweed Heads Ospreys in place of Kira Bourke.

Stewart, a pivotal member of the Ospreys' historic BPL10, 12 and 13 triumphs, missed BPL16 due to work commitments but the Club Tweed stalwart will rejoin coach Wayne Turley OAM and her MVP winning teammates in Aaron Teys and Corey Wedlock on the Murray come February 21 next year.

The other change on the green comes from the Tasmania Tridents, who will bring in Michael Sims for foundation franchise member Mark Nitz.

Sims will make Tridents history as the first player to be brought in to the team following the team's inception into the BPL at the commencement of BPL14 earlier this year. The 26-year-old brings a wealth of state experience to the tournament having been a state representative since 2013.

In addition, he is a multiple winner of Bowls Tasmania's Male Bowler of the Year award and the 2014 the Bowls Australia Under-18 Male Bowler of the Year.

Sims will combine with Taelyn Male and two-time BPL All Star Rebecca Van Asch.

Following a runner-up showing at Club Pine Rivers last month, the Adelaide Pioneers have made a coaching change with John 'Enry' Higgins replacing an unavailable Les Carter.

The playing trio remains the same, with two-time MVP Scott Thulborn, Wayne Ruediger and Katelyn Inch all returning for the South Australian franchise.

Following an agonising defeat at the hands of the Pioneers in the preliminary final at BPL16, the Moreton Bay Pirates have swapped their coaching position with Ryan Burnett taking over from Michael Breen.

Burnett has previously coached in the tournament with two stints at the Moama Steamers, guiding them to the BPL14 decider where they fell in a tie-break to the Sydney Lions. The Pirates retain the playing threesome of Alex Marshall, Jo Edwards and Chris Rosanes.

Two-time defending champions the Melbourne Pulse remain unchanged as Ellen Ryan, Barrie Lester and BPL All Star Gary Kelly looking to achieve the second three-peat in tournament history with Jeremy Henry at the helm.

The Steamers have retained the services of coach Kevin Anderson, five-time MVP Aron Sherriff, two-time MVP Ryan Bester and Cassandra Millerick, while the Lions remain unchanged as four-time champion Karen Murphy, Ben Twist and Aaron Wilson join their coach Steve Glasson OAM.

Carla Krizanic, Matt Flapper and Ali Forsyth return for the Melbourne eXtreme and will again be guided by Kelvin Kerkow OAM, while the Perth Suns keep the services of Kristina Krstic, Cody Packer, Blake Nairn and coach Pieter Harris.

The Gold Coast Hawks will also bring the same squad to Moama in February, with Kelsey Cottrell, Nathan Rice and Shannon McIlroy itching to get the franchise back into the finals with Anthony Kiepe at the helm.

BPL17 is scheduled for February 21-25, 2023, with 24 hours of live broadcast on Fox Sports, Kayo and Sky Sports NZ across Tuesday to Friday evenings from 4pm-10pm AEDT, 3pm-9pm AEST.
