Over 6k for Lachie

Reproduced from Barfoot & Thompson Birkenhead facebook page
Our fundraiser for Lachie Love was a great success over the weekend, and we raised over $6,000 for his family.
Many thanks to Birkenhead Bowling Club for hosting us, Tony Loughran for organising the event and 'The Soul Agents' for the fantastic entertainment.
If you want to learn more about Lachie's battle or want to help his family, you can head to their GiveALittle page. <https://givealittle.co.nz/cause/lachie-needs-your-help>

Champion 1-5 Year Pairs and Men's Fours

Eight 1-5 Year teams headed out on the green early Saturday morning in pursuit of Championship glory, to ultimately be decided another day after the two-life system had whittled down the field to three after the day's play..

Round one and early favourites Warren Lush and Kieran Jones made light work of Bill Robertson and Syd Walker (20-4). First years Craig Moverley and Zakk Johnson managed to pull off a win over the all-female pair of Linda Anderson and Fay Judge (11-9), While fellow first year bowlers Mark Van Echten and Daniel Smith's championship baptism was a dive into the font against last minute entrants Nick Cape and Mitch Cameron, with Cape and Cameron coming away the victors (18-8). A tight game in the Mike Pugh, Sue Thomas versus Bev Rolfe, Mark Hitchcock game with a single shot giving Rolfe/Hitchcock the win (12-11)

Round two, Cape/Cameron certainly announced their intention with and old fashion thrashing of Moverley/Johnson (20-4) to send Moverley/Johnson below the line. Rolfe/Hitchcock also dropped below the line after receiving a thrashing themselves from Jones/Lush (21-3), action below the line down in the one lifers section Anderson/Judge sent Van Echten/Smith home beating them by a single shot (15/14), while Robertson/Walker easily accounted for Pugh/Thomas (21-10).

Round three and the competition down to two two lifers and four one lifers. Cape/Cameron sent Jones/Lush below the line (15-10). While below the line itself Robertson/Walker sent Anderson/Judge home (19-12) as did Moverley/Johnson sending Rolfe/Hitchcock off (17-7).

Round four and the last of the day. Robertson/Walker pulled off the upset of the day, fighting from the position below the line and up against the only two lifer left, Cape/Cameron where soundly beat (20-5) sending Cape/Cameron below the line, no two lifers left!! Moverley/Johnson and Jones/Lush had everything to play for with the loser dropping out. It was Jones/Lush progressing forward with a win (13-7).

Round five to be played on a date to be advised will see Robertson/Walker with the bye into the final. While Jones/Lush take on Cape/Cameron to see who makes the winner takes all final. Thanks must go to Terry Moverley stepping in to assist in Doug Campbell's absence to run a smooth and on time championship.

The Men's Championship Fours saw eight teams step out to do battle Sunday morning with four moving though to post section, those four have not been divulged to the Bee, no chart on display and no write up received, we wait an outcome on the Sunday 26 February.

Sandy's Seafood Tournament

It is that time of the year again as entry to the annual seafood tournament opens. We have had some wonderful sponsors over the years, Ra and Queenie Te Amo for over ten years and then Graham Rutherford with Wheels on Wairau. In 2023 we welcome Summerset's Monterey Park on board and with a slight change in the tournament's name. With Sandy's approval, the tournament he has nurtured for close to twenty years will now bear his name, "Sandy's Seafood Tournament"

Entry is $240 per team, phone Evan: if you keen, 021 0575491

Opportunity for New-look Blackjacks to Shine at Multi Nations

Reproduced from Bowls New Zealand website

Published January 20, 2023

New Zealand selectors Peter Belliss and Sharon Sims have shown their hand for the first international event of 2023, naming a 14-strong squad for the upcoming Multi-Nations to be held on the Gold Coast in March.

Led by National Head Coach Mike Kernaghan, New Zealand will put forward seven men and seven women to contest medals against South Africa, Ireland, Malaysia, Norfolk Island, Hong Kong and their trans-tasman counterparts, Australia - with several players getting the nod to make their international debuts.

While many will notice the absence of the vastly experienced Ali Forsyth, Shannon McIlroy and Gary Lawson, several new faces will be introduced to the international set-up, rewarding them for their consistently high performances in recent seasons.

These are Kelvin Scott, Ray Martin, Lance Pascoe, Chris Le Lievre and newly-crowned men's singles champion Sheldon Bagrie-Howley. Blackjacks Andrew Kelly and Tony Grantham have both remained in the line-up, while Auckland representative Mike Galloway has narrowly missed the selection for this event.

"It's a really exciting time for our team, no doubt some of the players that have missed out on this occasion will be disappointed, and rightly so, but they know the door to future selection is certainly not shut," Kernaghan said.

"This is a great opportunity for us to have a look at some of the other high performing players, and see if they can take the next step up from domestic play through to handling themselves on the international stage."

Meanwhile, all five medallists from Birmingham have retained their place in the Blackjacks women's set-up, while Clare Hendra and Leeane Poulson have received the call-up to show their wares on the big stage. Joining Hendra and Poulson will be reigning World Champion of Champion Singles winner Tayla Bruce, national women's singles champion Selina Goddard, international powerhouse Val Smith, the well-performed Nicole Toomey and the Australian-based Kiwi Katelyn Inch - the latter five securing bronze at last year's Commonwealth Games.

For those players unsuccessful in their selection, Kernaghan, Belliss and Sims have sounded a strong message to them all - pointing out the door remains wide open for them to play a part in the World Bowls 2023, set to be hosted by the Gold Coast in August.

"There's a lot of bowls to be played between now and then, and with the Multi-Nations, this is one of those rare opportunities for us to widen our selection net and see what others can do at a higher level. We want to take this opportunity to give those that have been knocking at the door a chance to show us they have what it takes to step up to that next level, and that's a really exciting prospect," Kernaghan said.

"We're essentially saying to them, get out there, play the game you love and play to the level we know you are capable of reaching. Sometimes it's about getting that chance, and this for them, is exactly that . . . their chance and we're looking forward to seeing how that plays out."

Commenting on potential combinations, Kernaghan says the event will be played on a rotational basis - meaning no set combinations will be pre-selected prior to the event. The format will see five players at any one time take to the greens, with the event to be played over six days, from 25-31 March on the Gold Coast.

The event will also feature four para-representatives, with selections expected to be announced later this month.

2023 Summerset National Singles and Pairs Tournament

Dear Terry

We wish to sincerely thank you and your club for making your clubhouse, greens and volunteers available to Bowls New Zealand and, most importantly, the more than 700 players that participated in the Summerset National Singles and Paris Tournament in the first week of January. Your commitment to the event was very much appreciated, especially as the weather was so difficult for much of the event.

The efforts of your greenkeeping team deserve special praise given the conditions, but the positive attitude of yours and other clubs throughout the Auckland and North Harbour region across the event ensured that we were able to deliver the event despite the conditions. As Tournament Director, I could not have asked more of you and am extremely grateful for your willingness to assist the event to progress as planned as best as it possibly could.

Please pass on Bowls New Zealand's thanks to all your club's people who made it possible for us to deliver the tournament for the benefit of the players and their supporters.

We wish you an enjoyable remainder to the 2022/23 season and hope that it is played out under blue skies and sunshine.

With very kind regards
