National Interclub Sevens

Reproduced from BNH website (March 20, 2023)
by Lindsay Knight

A splendid effort by the North Harbour women's representative team at the national inter-centre sevens' championship in Christchurch at the weekend came tantalisingly close to a place in the final.

Instead the Harbour team of Selina Goddard, Elaine McClintock, Ling Ou, Wendy Jensen, Lauren Mills, Millie Nathan and Robyne had to settle for third equal, beaten narrowly in the semi-final by arch-rivals, Auckland, 2-1.

Singles player Selina, in close games, and the four were both edged out, with only the pair winning.

Until then Harbour had been in imperious form, not dropping a game in section play, then also winning its quarter-final over Wanganui 3-0, giving a record of 18 wins on the trot. So despite the disappointment of the semi-final it was still a memorable achievement.

The Nelson powerhouse inspired Jo Edwards and Val Smith won the title yet again, beating Auckland in the final.

The Harbour men's representative team of Bart Robertson, Jeremy Brosnan, Simon Poppleton, Brent Malcolm, David Payne, John Walker, Brian Wilson, and Jack Huriwai, was not quite so successful.

It finished fourth in section play, behind Southland, Nelson and Hawke's Bay and ahead of South Canterbury and Kapiti Coast.

In the singles Harbour won three of five games as did the four, but in the pairs there was only one win from five games.

Wellington won the men's title, beating Southland in the final.

1-5 Singles

Men's 1-5 Year Championship Singles played this coming weekend. Women's 1-5 Year Championship Singles played by mutual arrangement. Both are two-life system and the draws can be found on the respective championship clipboards.

A Double Win

By Steve Harrison

A double Win for the darts section as the double in City of Sails season kicks off

As some of you may have heard it was the first game of the City of Sales darts league on Saturday and what a great opening day darts we all had with both Stingers 1 of the premier league and Stingers 2 of the A grade league at home and christening our new darts zone located downstairs.

Stingers 1 took on Tons of Bulls from Swanson RSA in the Hive, while Stingers 2 played against United Nations downstairs. Would like to thank all involved in helping setting up the downstairs area ready for the games, we hope to have it finished of soon too.

Playing on Saturday for Stingers 1 was Captain Paul -The One (pairs only) pairing with Randall and Bryce – The Thumb pairing with Jarred all coming away undefeated 2-0! Great start guys! Then into the singles Jack stepped in for Paul. Where the team held on to the lead throughout and finishing 13-7 victorious. To add to this Jarred on his debut game and his first 3 darts after Bryce had got the double in, smashed in a 180! Well done Jarred. Other high moments also included a 130 start for Jarred, a 120 start for Jack and a 100 start for Bryce. Everyone had many 100+ scores and the team stats will be available at the end of each month.

Then we have Stingers 2 where our other Captain Alex – Fighting Rabbit paired Willie - the conqueror and Steve – Armsy paired with Steve – Yorkie pud. With the two Steve's winning both pairings 2-0, Alex and Willie had a tough start 1-1. Honourable mention and thank you to Dougie for helping with the marking of the pair games, top bloke! As per Stingers 1, Stingers 2 also kept hold of the lead throughout and managed to match the score of 13-7 too. Also, to add to the great darts Yorkie pud started with a 101 and Fighting Rabbit smashed home a 160 start! Not a bad day at the office for everyone.

Darts of the day go to Captain Alex who thought outside the box when he left himself with 60, so he started shaky with a 1, then slotted in a Triple 19 and showing off his skis with a double 1 finish! Thanks to all supporters and markers on the day we all appreciate you! We do not have a game this week but return to the oche on 1st April when both teams shall be playing away from home. Finally Big mention and appreciation sent to our sponsors, who without you would not have made this happen. Angela at Fahey Property Management, Paul at Bullseyedarts.co.nz, Daniel at IronOak, Dean at Spray & Relax, Tim at Barfoot & Thompson, Steve at Jet Couriers, Emmie at ESL and Chris at Hullworks
