Baptism By Fire

Saturday Tommy Winton took three first year bowlers, Gary Bear, Adam Richardson and Stacey Munro, to Glenfield to compete in an open fours tournament. Nothing much was expected of the combination, although all three first years show promise, it was certainly going to be an up hill battle and a long day. First up they struck Birkenhead's Sandy Cleg-horn, Roy Parker, Garry Cooley and Ross Haresnape, talk about a baptism by fire. At the conclusion of ten ends Winton's team had won seven ends and was ahead on the board and victory was theirs to savour. Unfortunately the next three games the results went the other way. The Bee spoke to Munro about the victory “it was a great day we really enjoyed it, it was great fun”.

The first two places in the tournament were taken out by Birkenhead Teams. Lionel Drew, Jack Huriwai, Daymon Pierson, Jimmy Heath took out first place with 4 wins. Carole Fredrick, Ruth Lynch, Kevin George, Mark Rumble runners up with three wins and a draw.
