Milika Does It Again

The weather man promised a great weekend and Saturday certainly lived up to that with a stunning day for bowls. With a huge field of two players there was little doubt that the Women's 1-5 Year Championship Singles wouldn't be completed. Judi Farkash and Milika Nathan were the two out chasing the title for 208-19 and the chance to represent the Club at the Centre Champ of Champ later in the season.

Farkash out to claim her first singles title and Nathan to hopefully successfully defend the title she won last season as a first year bowler. Under the two life system it was basically the best of three games.

Farkash, in tightly fought battle took the first (21-19). Nathan came out strongly in the second picking up a four in the first end and was up fourteen nil before Farkash was on the board. Nathan kept the momentum going to win (21-11).

The third and deciding game, Nathan picked up a two first end with Farkash replied scoring a four on the second. Farkash stepped out to a 14-9 lead before Nathan got with in one shot (14-13). Farkash scored a two on the next end, before Nathan replied with three twos in succession to pull in front (19-16). Farkash scored a one on the following end but a two to Nathan on the next end was the nail in the coffin, with Nathan taking out the decider (21-17) and successfully defending the Women's 1-5 Year Championship Singles title.

Oh So Close

Last Wednesday, Birkenhead's Mark Rumble, Lionel Drew (the God Father of the side, as called by Kevin Hickland), Randal Watkins and Nigel Drew were needing two more wins from four remaining games to qualify for post section in The 114th Taranaki Men's Open Fours.

Wednesday saw Drew's team beat West End's Darren Scott (25-22) in the morning and then after lunch beat Pukekohe's Don Ramsey (21-20) and qualify for Friday's post section, knock out.

Thursday morning and a nothing game, except for pride, against Fitzroy's Neville Goldsworthy, down 10-8 at the break in a game that Drew said during the break "hard to get motivated for this one". Then went out and pulled off a 21-11 win with Goldsworthy conceding after 21 ends.

Post section with all games played at West End. Drew was up against Masterton's John Clayton in the last 32, after both teams had the bye in the first round. Drew had his nose in front (6-10) going into the morning tea break after a tight 12 ends. The play remained tight with Drew and Clayton all locked up at 12 all after 18 ends and 13 all after 20 ends. Clayton was picking up singles shots while Drew had a three in his mix. One shot the difference to Drew after 24 ends (15-16). Playing the last end Drew was two shots down on the head. Clayton was heavy and dragged the jack back to Drew's back bowls then missed with his last and Drew didn't have to play his last picking up a three and the win (19-15), Drew spoke of the win after "Phew!!". Drew was into the last 16!!!

Saturday morning and back to the office up against Kensington's Dean McMurchy. As has been the case so often for Drew they had their nose in front going into morning tea (10-13 after 11 ends). Morning tea and in fact afternoon tea are great levellers at Taranaki. Drew quickly stepped out to a (12-21) lead after 18 ends. But then five consecutive ends to McMurchy saw the lead shorten (17-21) a two on the 24 end and Drew was in front (17-23) going into the last. A four to McMurchy on the last but Drew was still ahead (21-23), the win and a spot in the afternoons last 8.

The afternoon and being down going in to the tea break was not what Drew was a custom to, he was down (9-6) to Tower's Bruce Phillips. But this wasn't to last as Drew's side was locked in a tight contest throughout against Phillips. However, when they took the lead at 11-10 after 14 ends, they never relinquished it. Commencing the 25th end, Drew led by one. At the first attempt, Phillips killed the head with his last bowl. On the replay, Phillips' No 3, Scott Roberts, drew two beauties. Watkins reduced the count to one. But Phillips, with his last delivery, drew another fine shot. Nigel Drew, playing positively on the narrow hand, pushed one of his team's bowls in for shot to snatch victory (19-17).

Sunday came and Mark Rumble, Lionel Drew, Randall Watkins and Nigel Drew out of one hundred and sixty-eight teams were in the last four! They were where no Birkenhead side had been before, the semi-finals of the Taranaki Men's Open Fours. Up against West End's Jordan Linn, Dave Wilson, Steve Walker, Craig De Faria in initially misty/drizzle conditions, a far cry from the stunning week that had been. Drew got out to eight shot lead (1-9) after 4 ends, this is a 25 end game. De Faria pegged Drew back (8-10) after 9 ends. Still in Drew's favour (9-12) after 12 ends. Things had changed by the end 17 with De Faria leading (18-14). A lead De Faria never surrendered winning the semi (21-17) and ending Drew's run, oh so close.....

The final, Palmerston North's Brian Henn, Ron Henn, Ian Monaghan and Brian Little up against West End's De Faria. Playing superbly as a team, West End's Craig De Faria and his side of Jordan Linn, Dave Wilson and Steve Walker ran out comfortable winners (24-13) of the 114th Taranaki men's Open fours bowls tournament on their home greens.

Wallace Wins Round One and Final

It wasn't only just the Women playing out their 1-5 Year Championship Singles last weekend. The men too stepped out on the green Saturday morning chasing the Men's 1-5 Year Championship Singles title. Played under the two life system with nine entries there was a bye, than a default reared it's ugly head. When the player concerned was contacted about his whereabouts as he hadn't arrived, he text back "Sorry can't make it, am away". Leaving Robbie Henson waiting at the rink and having to sit out the first round, along with John Hannan who had the bye. Round one Adam Richardson beat first year Sean Munro (21-6). Robbie Henson went through by default, Stacy Munro beat first year Warren Lush in a tightly fought game (21-20). Last season's Champion Gary Wallace narrowly beat Ray Tomes in a neck and neck tussle (21-20).

Round two, Henson went down to Stacy Munro (9-21), Gary Wallace easily accounted for Hannan (21-3). The one lifers saw Sean Munro go through courtesy of the default. Lush dropped out going down to Tomes (5-21).

Round three, Richardson up (20-4) over Wallace almost blow it as Wallace put on fifteen unanswered points to trail by one (19-20). But the one point did eventually come and Richardson won (20-21). Sean Munro and Hannan dropped out of the championship. Round four battle of the two lifers, mate against mate, Richardson dropped below the line to Stacy Munro in a game that saw Munro always in front (16-21).

Round five and into the business end with one two lifer Stacy Munro and three one lifers, Wallace, Richardson and Tomes. Munro dropped below the line to join the rest of the field after going down to Wallace (9-21). Tomes beat Richardson (21-10) sending Richardson home.

Round six and Wallace got the bye into the final while Tomes and Munro played off to see who would join him there. It was one way traffic with Tomes winning (21-8).

The final Wallace and Tomes neck and neck again and after 14 ends it was 9 all. Tomes stepped out to a 17-10 lead before Wallace scored a one and three to be three behind (17-14). At 20-15 Tomes looked to have it in the bag. But a one, two, one and a two gave Wallace the win (21-20), a repeat of the first round score between the two, and the Championship for the season.

Now in its eighth year, with big money, bragging rights and a high level of competition all round, the Men's Pairs tournament this year is endorsed by Bowls New Zealand as part of the "Summer of Bowls". Soden is with Carlton Cornwall's James Williams, while Read pairs up with Glen Eden's Jeremy Brosnan and with Read's efforts of late, most recently beating World Champion Shannon McIlroy in singles at the recent Bowls NZ Nationals, will be a team to keep an eye on.

Following hard on the heels of the Men's Pairs, the "Summer of Bowls" returns as the Good Home Birkenhead $6,500 Women's Pairs gets under way for the tenth year on Saturday 16 February. Featuring some of New Zealand's top women bowlers and a former Australian Jackaroo to mix it all up and keep them all honest.

Let The Battles Commence

This weekend sees thirty-two teams out on the greens at Birkenhead chasing the Bert Sutcliffe Retirement Village Birkenhead Men's Pairs title along with $1,500 and Champions Cup that comes with the honour.

Saturday is about battling it out to gain a high seeding and a spot in the top sixteen for Sunday.

First round Saturday and it's a baptism of fire welcome to tournament virgin Victoria's Lou Newman as he partners Birkenhead's Mike Cartwright as they take on the might of Eastbourne's Jamie Hill and Browns Bay's Tony Grantham, both having previously represented New Zealand and with Jamie being recalled to the squad after a decade.

Regulars Onehunga and Districts's, Mike Bradshaw and Neville Hill look to start their tournament off the winning way but must get past Pt Chevalier's Nick Bell and Kevin Morris first.

Pukekohe Cossie's Shaun Pennell has left regular lead Alan Gibbons at home this year, bringing Mike Cavanagh along for the ride and meeting the Northland duo of Hikurangi's Dennis Brester and staunch tournament supporter Whangarei's Ken Fitness first up.

Riverhead's Steve Cox and Grant Goodwin return for their eighth attempt at lifting the trophy, Cox/Goodwin a team that hasn't quite reached their potential in this tournament to date, could 2019 be their year?. They open their campaign against the lads from down state highway one, Frankton Railway's Barry Rajendram and Chris Lourie. Northcote's Brent Malcom and Takapuna's John Jenssen will have their work cut out for them up against Royal Oak Rockets Bowls3Five players Mike Galloway and Martin Dixon making their first appearance in the tournament's history.

Round Two and if you have lost the first round a win in this round is all important.

Combining their talents for a second year Auckland's Gary Breckon and Riverhead's Bart Robertson come up against newly crowned Birkenhead Men's Singles Champion Mark Rumble and Championship Fours skip Nigel Drew, both returning from a great Taranaki Men's Fours effort, a game sure to provide plenty of drawing and driving.

Past winner Carlton Cornwall's Vladimir (Wally) Marsic returns, after missing last year, with club mate Petar Sain in tow. They strike from the Far North, father and son Kerikeri's David Hood and Whangarei's Daniel Hood.

Orewa's Colin Rogan, holder of thirty North Harbour titles, has fellow club mate Murray Vallance off the front for a game that could go either way against Browns Bay's Grant Keats and Beach Haven's Garry Banks.

Round three and two loses and you're really fighting to make the top sixteen and relying other results go your way.

Papatoetoe Hunter's Corner's Mark Hall and Royal Oak's David Akaruru will be wishing for a couple of wins under their belt before taking on last year's champions Browns Bay's Adam Haywood and Scott Cottrell. Orewa versus Riverhead as Bruce McClintock (sponsored by The Warehouse) and David Eades take on David Ross and Duane McDonald. Howick up against Birkenhead sees Bryan Chapman and Neil Fisher duke it out with Peter Nathan and Randall Watkins.

Rising stars Belmont Park's Daryl Read and Glen Eden's Jeremy Brosnan go toe to toe with Birkenhead's Brian Wilson and Shane Gibson, possibly the game of the round.

Eastbourne's Jamie Hill will be back in action this year on Birkenhead's greens with Tony Grantham

Fourth round as the teams jockey for position for Sunday's seed draw. Tournament virgins Pringle Park's Craig Harrold and Steve Gaughan will be hopping not needing the win as they take on Haywood/Cottrell. Birkenhead's Jimmy Heath and Daymon Prieson will be thinking the same as they come up against Bradshaw/Hill. Birkenhead's Doug Campbell and Riverhead's Bruce Baker do battle with Mount Manganui's John Gray and Steve Beel. Although the real race could be off the front with Campbell and Gray not only bowling but backing horses. Tournament virgins Royal Oak's James Gavin and Gavin Brown will be hopping they don't need the win against Bowls New Zealand's Talent Development Squad member Rory Soden and Carlton Cornwall's green keeper James Williams. Birkenhead's Evan Thomas and Lionel Drew "The Godfather", will be relying on a bit of local knowledge as they take on Glenfield's David Payne and Tom Campbell to hopefully wind up a successful day one.

Bowls3Five Interclub Begins Tuesday!

Initially, Birkenhead was in Zone Four with Beach Haven, Northcote, Glenfield and Sunnybrae. Due to the number of entries, the Bowls North Harbour Match Committee has had to juggle the sections a little bit and as such the zones and nights being used has changed slightly. Birkenhead and Northcote the only entries in Zone 4, this Zone has gone and both clubs are now in Zone 3 on a Tuesday evening.

The Conditions of Play, although rather long, are reasonably simple to follow, a copy is available on Bowls North Harbour's website. The competition is run similar to the PPL that was played earlier in the season, with some slight variations.

Section 3 – Birkenhead, Northcote, Takapuna Gold, Orewa Blue

Qualifying Dates:

- Tuesday 5 February at Birkenhead - Birkenhead vs Northcote, Takapuna Gold vs Orewa Blue
- Tuesday 12 February at Takapuna - Birkenhead vs Takapuna Gold, Northcote vs Orewa Blue
- Tuesday 26 February at Orewa - Birkenhead vs Orewa Blue, Takapuna Gold vs Northcote
- Semi-Finals (Venue TBA) – Tuesday 5 March (Reserve Days Wednesday 6 and Thursday 7 March)
- Final (Venue TBA) – Tuesday 12 March (Reserve Days Wednesday 13 and Thursday 14 March)
