The Champion of the Club

On Tuesday we laid a true Champion of the Club to rest.

Kevin Croasdale, 13 October 1939 - 5 June 2019

Kevy, for the past 17 years Kevin has been a valued and treasured member of the Birkenhead Bowling Club.

First season in 2002-03 he was a champion, First Year Singles Champion. The second season champion again, but this time with Shane Gibson and it was the Junior Pairs.

The following 15 years he remained a Champion..... a Champion of the Birkenhead Bowling Club. Always there to assist with a smile..... Mr Reliable.

Up early to set up the greens and often returning later in the day to make sure all the gear was away, set up for Club functions and Corporates inside and out..... always there.

He served on the Club's Executive, was Club Captain for a number of years.

Awarded Bowls North Harbour Volunteer of the Year. Birkenhead President's Cup, members are grateful to be award it once, Kevin has been awarded the President's Cup twice!

The opening day honours of straightening the jack, raising the flag.. again Kevy has been afforded these honours multiple times.

Unquestionably a man that stood tall above the rest in his dedication to the Club in every respect. Club mate, friend, buddy, and Champion..... Kevy, rest in peace.
